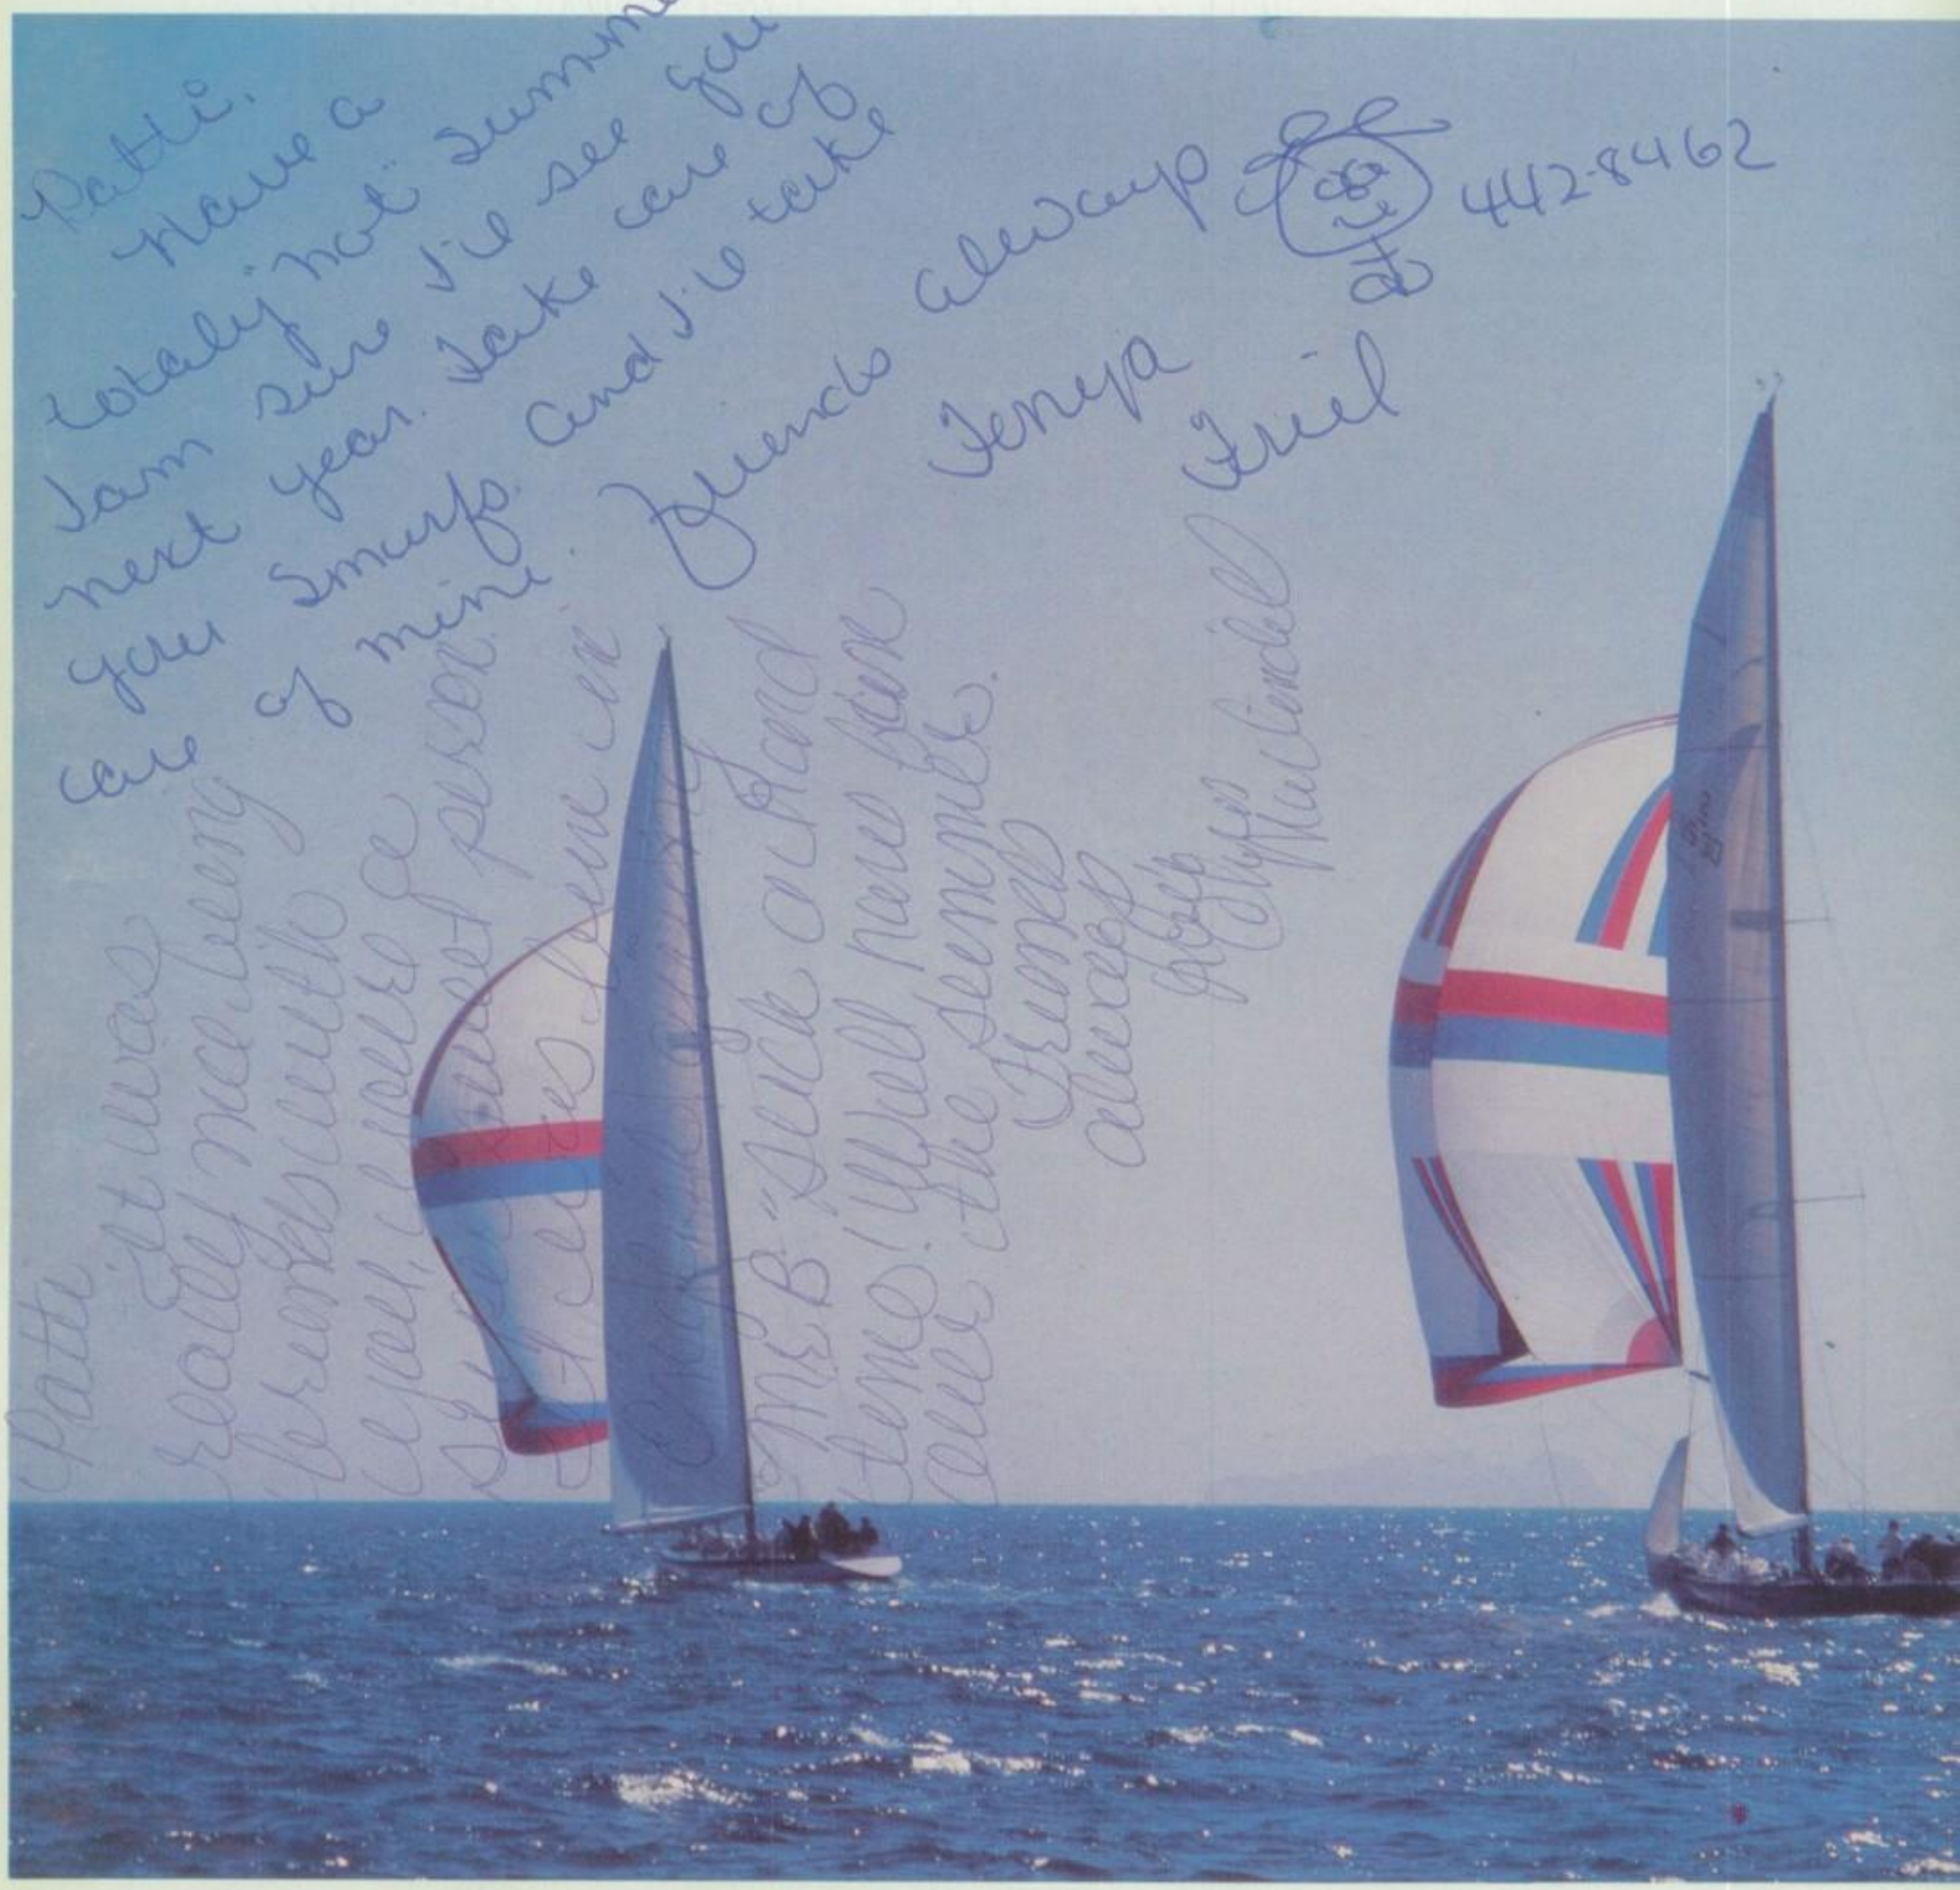
Looking Beyond . . .

Looking beyond past high school, we can use so many things we have learned here at Granite Hills. We have had to discipline ourselves with the mountains of homework demanding our attention. We have learned how to support our school, attending football games and showing our Eagle spirit. We have needed understanding, tolerance, and dedication here at Granite Hills, and this will help us throughout our lives. We will remember Granite Hills fondly, yet we will always be "looking beyond."



Pattie,
Have a

School's out Summers's in

Before the final bell rang in June, girls faithfully submitted themselves to the blistering sun and 100 + temperatures in order to produce a tan.

Students entertained themselves this summer, waterskiing, surfing and three-wheeling, or indulging in rock concerts such as the Beach Boys at Jack Murphy Stadium before a packed house, and the US Festival, the biggest rock event since Woodstock. Others enjoyed resorting to the mountains for some peacefulness and fresh air. Family vacations also proved to be worthwhile activities. Many found their time dwindling because of a commitment to a summer job.

However, the most prevalent summer pastime proved to be meeting friends at the beach to play frisbee, OTL and to deepen the tan.

Whatever the activity, students found that the summertime holds many of the blissful memories of High School.

Patti,
You are such a nice person. I'm sure glad that we're friends! We are gonna have to do something this summer. I hope we have more classes together next year!
Have a super Summer!

EL GRANITO HIGH SCHOOL
1719 MADISON AVENUE
EL CAJON, CALIFORNIA

March 25, 1960

Dear Parents:

You have probably driven past Madison and Fourth recently and wondered if our new school will be ready next fall. I have wondered too. But others in similar situations have wondered about this before and somehow new schools have managed to open on schedule. We hope this will be the case with El Granito, at least we are still planning to open September 12, 1960.

In anticipation of our first school year it is important that we begin to organize the El Granito PTA. This letter is being sent to parents of Freshmen, Sophomores and Juniors at El Cajon Valley High School who reside in the attendance area of El Granito High and to parents of present 8th graders who will be entering El Granito next fall. I hope you will be able to attend the two meetings listed below.

The first organizational meeting of the El Granito PTA will be held on Wednesday, March 30, 1960, at 7:30 P.M. in the Cafeteria at El Cajon Valley High. This first meeting should be of short duration and will consist of selecting a nominating committee and a by-laws committee. A few members of our faculty will be present to meet you. A colored sketch of El Granito will be available to graphically "tell" you about our new school. Mrs. Halgren, extension director of 9th District PTA will preside.

The second meeting will be held on Wednesday, April 20, 1960, at 7:30 P.M. in the Cafeteria at El Cajon Valley High. At this meeting the officers for our first school year will be elected, the by-laws will be presented for adoption, and the opportunity to become a Charter member will be available to each parent present.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS NOW, SO YOU WON'T MISS THESE TWO OPPORTUNITIES TO PROVE THAT EL GRANITO MAY BE SMALL IN NUMBERS BUT IT WILL BE GREAT IN QUALITY AND MIGHTY IN SPIRIT.

Sincerely,

Philip C. Morell
Principal

THE CREST — The Crest studtnts who hope to attend the new El Granito High School next year have relaxed. It is now officially renamed Granite Hills High School and the ribbing they have been taking before the school was even built will cease.

An organizational meeting of the proposed Granite Hills PTA will be held at 7:30 p.m. April 20 at El Cajon Valley High School. There will be an election of officers, and voting on the by-laws. This is the opportunity for all parents to become charter members.

You may wonder why the name of our school was changed from "El Granito" to "Granite Hills" and why this fact is relatively unknown. "El Granito" was chosen because the names of two nearby schools — El Capitan and El Cajon — revealed Spanish inflection. But the name was changed to Granite Hills because "El Granito" has a double meaning in Spanish. It means "the granite" but the objection was with the other meaning — "the zit."

Students From Foreign Lands

This year we have five foreign exchange students at Granite Hills. The students found the transition to the United States fairly easy since they have attended English classes in their home countries. Overall, the students like Granite Hills and El Cajon. We sincerely hope that these students have had an enjoyable year and a memorable experience here at Granite Hills.

Spirit Week

The first week of school is also known as "Spirit Week" here at Granite Hills, and we have very lively lunch periods during this time. The cheerleaders were very creative this year with the Jello-eating contest on Monday, the orange pass on Tuesday, and the shaving cream contest on Wednesday. Also, Thursday was the fun-filled toilet paper wrap, and on Friday, our students got close in the Lifesaver pass. Spirit Week also entailed two dress-up days, Punk Rock and Tourist, and wound itself up with the frosh becoming true-blue Eagles. Spirit Week was a way of displaying our Eagle spirit.

May I have your orange, please?

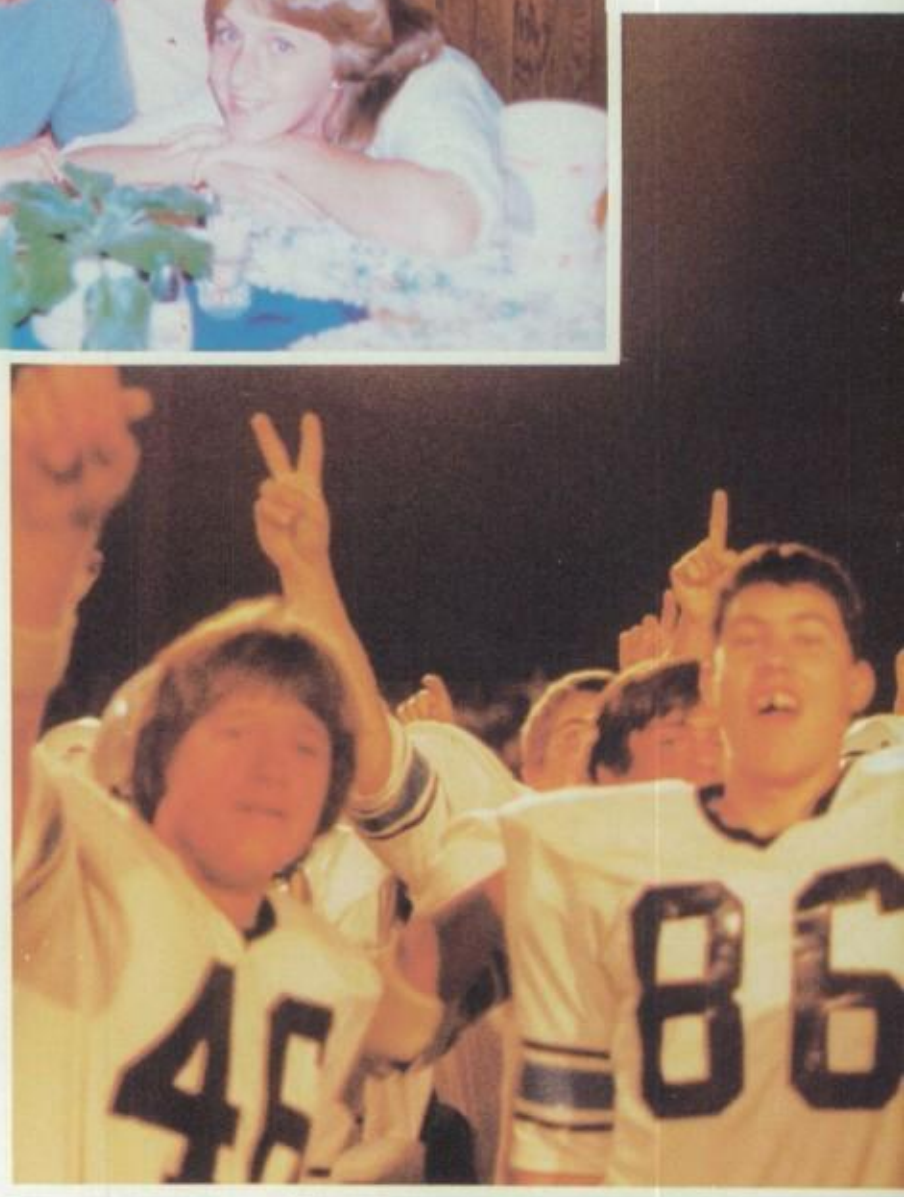
A Weekend Is . . .



A Weekend Is a time to share with friends, or doing special hobbies. A Weekend Is a time we all are looking forward to after a long week of school. Pretty soon everyday will be a weekend until we find that career in life that we must fulfill. A Weekend will be what it was when we were in high school, and maybe bring back some of those special times. A Weekend Is "Looking Beyond."

The breakfast was served at the International House of Pancakes on Magnolia. The breakfast included pancakes and bacon with your choice of milk or coffee.

Homecoming Week is a time for a lot of laughs especially when their is a snail race planned. The snail race didn't go quite as expected most the snails got eaten. Robert Ladezma raised a 100.00 dollars for the school by eating a snail. Tom De Lucis raised 50.00 dollars by eating one. Mr. Williams the Civics teacher even ate one of those slimy creatures. Other events during the week included: the Volkswagen push, human pyramid, tricycle race, the ice race, and the greased pumkin relay.

Fads and Fashions

Granite Hills students are well known as being fashion-conscious. Many different styles are "in," but our students seem to opt for the "preppie" look. Also, a slight punk flair from the 60's has entered into fashion in the form of colorful mini-skirts, tights, and pumps. For the guys the "in" thing is bermuda shorts. Another fad is the "I love" stickers and pins. The most popular at our campus being, of course, the "I love the Eagles" bumper stickers which tastefully adorn many cars in our parking lots. Also, radio headphones are popular and have great sound. Fads play an important part of our lives here in "Eagle Territory."

The Falklands' End Game

Heavy weather pulled over the South Atlantic last week, blowing across the subantarctic and shrouding the Falklands zone. On the high ground west of Stanley, Welsh paratroopers and Royal Marines dug in, fortified with tons of supplies and munitions. A few miles away, more than 10,000 Argentine defenders bunkered in a ragged horseshoe around the town, squeezed between the British forward positions and the icy waters at their backs. The two sides traded artillery fire. As the fog closed in, British troops caught a last glimpse of the Argentine troops eating dinner. Both armies seemed certain that when the fog lifted the final battle would begin.

With diplomacy at an end, British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher gave the Argentines one last chance to surrender before ordering her commanders to launch a final assault on Stanley. Slogging across the bogs and hills of East Falkland, British troops moved across from their beachhead at Port San Carlos and stormed out of captured positions at Goose Green and Darwin, seizing strategic peaks around Stanley, mounting a massive supply run and launching a final softening-up operation to sap the Argentines' will to fight. In Britain public support grew stronger than ever for Thatcher and her push for a decisive military victory (page 57). "We are on the island to repossess it if the Argentines do not withdraw," said British Foreign Minister Francis Pym.

The Argentines were determined not to go down without a fight. Argentine jets raced in from the mainland to bombard the British strongholds. Two Argentine submarines lurked undetected somewhere in the waters around the islands. In an eleventh-hour bid to reverse the military odds, Buenos Aires was spending hundreds of millions of dollars a day to reinforce its garrisons on the islands, ring Gen. Mario Benjamin Menendez, the defenders' commander, rallied his troops for a bloody last stand. "We should not only defeat them [the British]," he proclaimed, "but we should do it in such a way that the defeat will be so crushing that they will never again dare to invade our soil."

Jingoism: Argentine diplomats scrambled to head off a disaster. At the United Nations, Argentine envoys made a last-ditch effort to win a cease-fire, but Britain turned them down. At a working group of nonaligned states in Havana, Argentine Foreign Minister Nicanor Costa Mendez called on Cuba and other Third World countries to embrace the Argentine defense as a noble fight against "colonial domination." But Argentine radio and television muted the upbeat jingoism of earlier war reports. The military high command in Buenos Aires prepared public opinion for a blood bath by gradually issuing accounts of the dire Argentine predicament on the ground. Observed one Latin American diplomat: "I suggest what we are witnessing is an effort to somehow win the defeat."

The British began their preparations for the final assault by capturing high positions around Stanley. Royal Marines met little resistance as they seized Two Sisters, Mount Harriet and Mount Kent, a position among the highest peaks [illegible] more quickly set up [illegible] slopes of Mount Kent. I gave you everything, you said

The silver whisper of silent wind.
The starry sky is softly dimmed.
A candle burns in house afar,
And twinkles bright like morning star.
It is the lonely hour 'fore dawn,
When bird is quiet and noise is gone.

The dew drips as a silver tear.
The stillness broken with rooster cry,
As light appears in eastern sky.
The thought is changed, a new begun,
With the rising of the sun.

Twice a year the Honor Choir travels north on tours all around California to perform for other schools. Each year the combined choir classes perform two concerts, one at Christmas and the other in the spring. The success of the entire choir program is due to the tireless efforts of the director, Mr. Ray Murphy.

Our Volleyball program was vastly improved over last year. Both teams made large jumps toward the top — varsity rising from 7th to League Champions and our J.V. from 8th to 4th. We greatly appreciated all your support this season and hope it will continue into next year. You should be very proud of this group of ladies and their accomplishments. We were the No. 1 team in the county for most of the season. We stumbled only once this year losing to Torrey Pines in the semis of C.I.F. These ladies should hold their heads high remembering how far they've come in one year.

The team had only one substitute for 5 games and no subs for the rest. Steve Creamer playing only 10 games scored 74 goals to lead the Eagle offense. Also strong were Rick Hunnicutt with 49 goals and Tom DeLucia with 45.

The 1982-1983

Basketball team did not win many games; however, the players worked hard and showed hustle and determination. As the season progressed, the team showed improvement in many aspects of the game. Steve Robinson showed his offensive abilities by averaging nearly 17 points a game. The team's future looks very good as many players will be returning. Scott Lanham, after a solid junior yr., will be along with seven other lettermen. Sophomores Kyle Robbins, Tom Shawcroft and Erik Rainer should provide exciting basketball for Granite Hills in upcoming seasons.

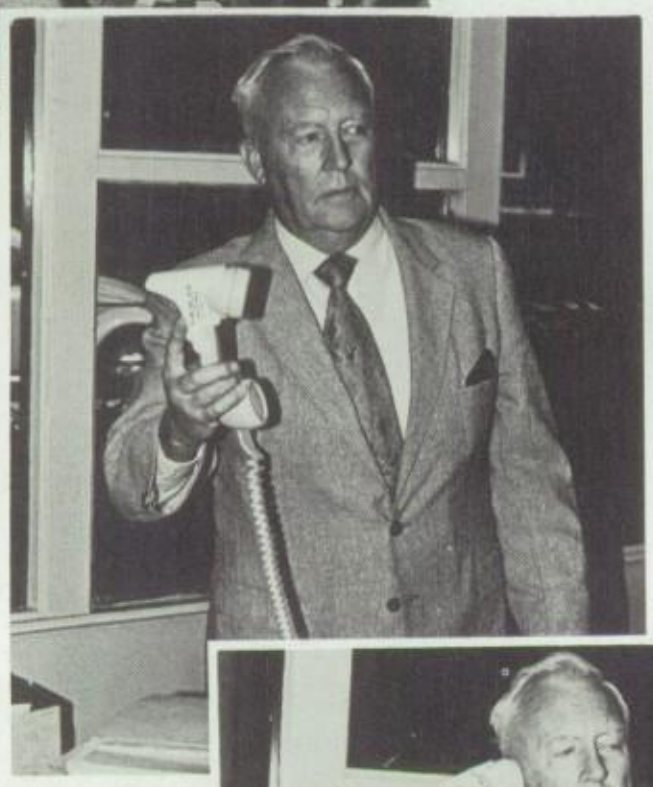
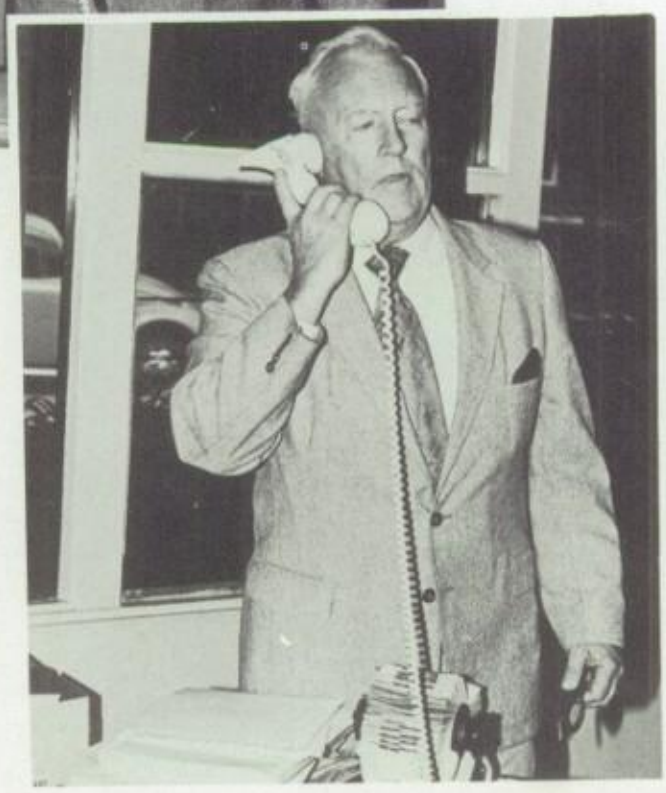
One Final Farewell

Although this is a year for all of us to remember, for Mr. Morell, it is just one out of many that have given him happiness and fulfillment. "I want to go out when things are good. I feel like I've accomplished a lot, I fell like the school is a good place now, and it's a good time to move aside." Certainly the Mighty Eagles have grown in every respect as Super Eagle has guided us and shown dedication to the home of the Mighty Eagles.

Mr. Morell is currently the dean of Grossmont district principals and the only principal Granite Hills has ever had. He was assigned the job when the school opened in 1960.

A native of northern Minnesota and graduated from both Hamline University and the University of Southern California, Mr. Morell is a well educated man. Even so, he says, "You can never stop being a student and learning."

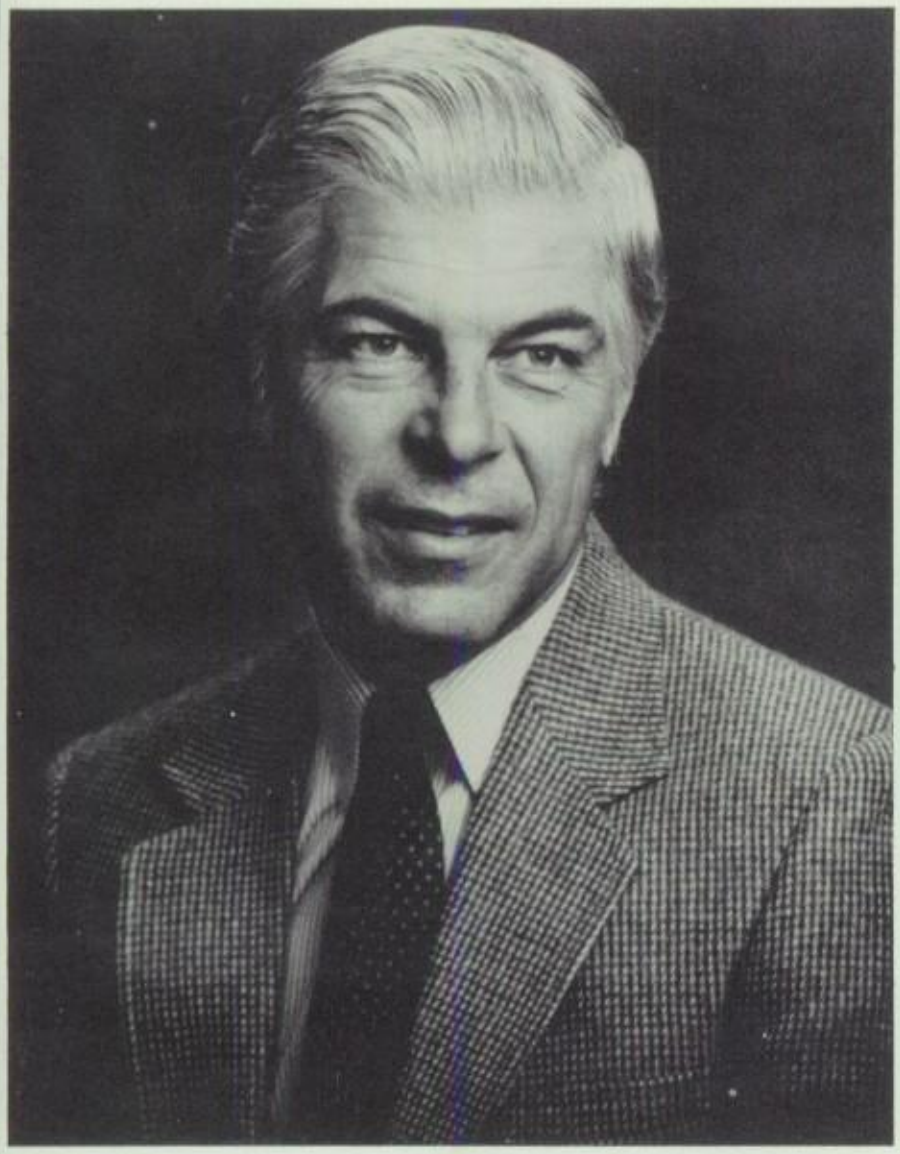




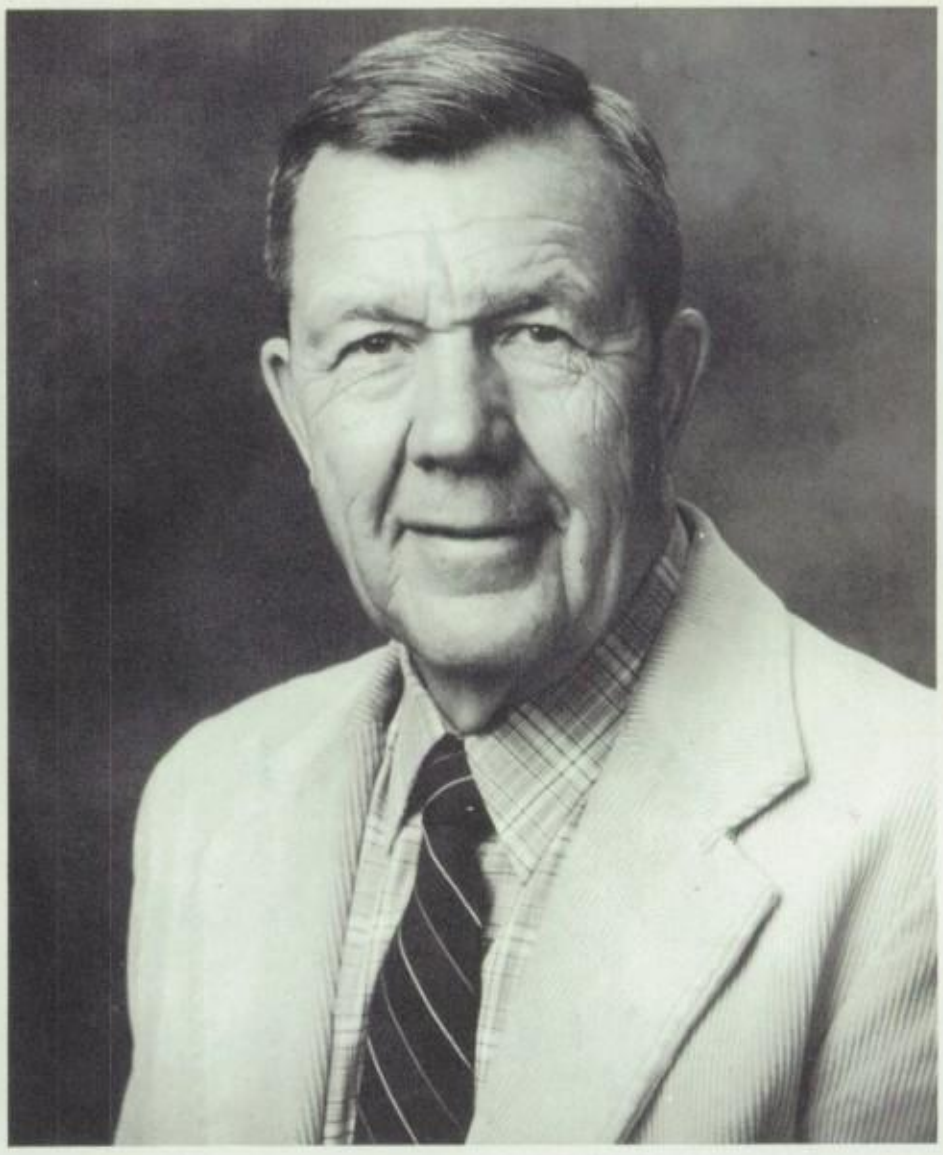
"One of the best memories I have is the dedication of the fiberglass Ernie in 1964, the first class to graduate from Granite Hills."

I feel privileged to have been presented the most rewarding experience of being Principal of Granite Hills High School for twenty-three years. I will still leave a part of my heart there at Granite Hills High School, but my retirement shouldn't keep me from following what is going on at Granite Hills. "I'm sure that on Friday nights next year I will probably find myself watching Granite Hills and somebody playing football. You can't help but miss something you've put thirty-four years of your life into."

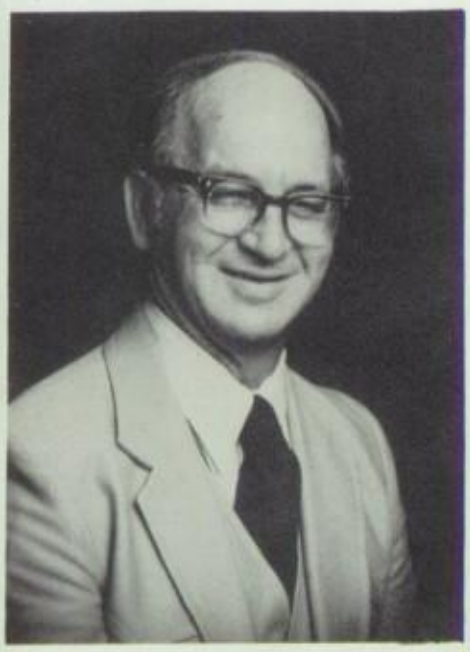
And so it is that in years to come, our principal will remember 1983 with a smile rather than a tear.



"In years to come, classes will be able to enjoy the leadership and tradition established by "Super Eagle." For those who remain the challenge is to maintain the "Home of the Mighty Eagles" as the best high school in San Diego County. We'll miss you, Phil.
Dan Arens



I leave Granite Hills with a good feeling and with many good memories. The students, the staff, and the faculty have made the years enjoyable ones for me. My best wishes to all at Granite Hills for continued success. GO EAGLES!
Glen Otterson



"This has been the most outstanding class I have had the privilege to guide. I am happy that colleges are accepting many of this year's seniors. Good luck to all of you." Roy Stull

"After nine years at Granite Hills, I find that I love the school and kids more than ever. The friendships I have formed will stay in my heart forever." Jan Ryder

"Working with students, staff, and parents is a very enjoyable way to make a living. The experiences are very much appreciated. Thank you all. R. Vega

"Change will happen in each of us — because we have met." "In the past thirty-one years of teaching and counseling I have met and learned to respect between 12,000-13,000 students, their parents, and a multitude of professional colleagues and administrators. All of these have contributed to my personal and professional growth. I say 'Thanks and God bless you all.' "

Where Credit Is Due

I would like to devote this page in thanks to those who helped make this book possible: Dick Kerr of Taylor — who was patient and helpful; Dr. Beharka for his watchful eye; Boyd Anderson and our staff photographers for "odd" pictures and rush work; all the faculty who wrote for Cyndie; Joy for the ads in the bulletin; Mr. Decker for lending his typewriters during a crisis; the custodians for NOT cleaning a room where every scrap of paper is precious; "King of the Ice Chest" buddies, they know why; Students who contributed poems, pictures, etc.; Mr. Salyer for reading his blue bulletin; all the Taco Bells in San Diego; Gregg for his fantastic division pages made to order; My family, especially AM, and Jim for their encouragement. Most of all, I appreciate every person who was on the staff this year. New and different ideas were tried by most everyone. I am very proud of the hard work and long hours put in by my outstanding staff. Hopefully, the tradition of Granite Hills High School was kept up in this year's annual.

Sincerely,
Elizabeth Padilla

Patti,

We've been in the same class
for a year, but I've only known you for the last half of that year.
During the last half I've met a new friend and that's you, really.
I'm sure we'll see each other next year and we may even have a few classes, too. I hope you have a fun and exciting summer.
